Keynote Speaker: Will Kymlicka

“The Near Death of Canadian Multiculturalism”

Join us for this Canadian Difference Project workshop.

Canadian Difference is an online community dedicated to exploring what makes Canada work, and the role which mutual accommodation has or could play in this country. In this workshop we explore diversity and decolonization, gender and Islam, and the case for diversity in the workplace. Featured speakers include William A. Macdonald, editorial contributor to the Globe and Mail; Christopher P. Dummitt, author of Unbuttoned: A History of Mackenzie King's Secret Life; Nahla Abdo, author of Captive Revolution: Palestinian Women's Anti-Colonial Struggle Within the Israeli Prison System; and Dawn Lavell-Harvard, Director of the First People's House of Learning at Trent University.
